

Richard Moss Laskey, III

Profile

Web + DBA + Systems. Highly skilled in SQL, PHP, xHTML, CSS, JS, operating systems and hardware. Interest in media, and all aspects of computer systems.

Professional Experience

Systems Analyst

Boston University, Physics Department: June, 2005 – present

- Full-stack web development for a wide array of internal and external applications.
- Personal support for computing, coding, and other technology-related issues.
- Media production, to include print, audio, photographic, and video content.

Systems Assistant

Boston University, Astronomy Department: September, 2001 - May, 2005

- Created a personnel database and integrated CMS in SQL and PHP.
- Advanced knowledge of Linux and other UNIX-based systems utilized on a daily basis.

Office Assistant

Boston University, Graduate School of Arts and Sciences: June, 2002 - May, 2005

- General office duties, provided training for website upkeep.

Systems Manager

The Viking Group: 1994 - present

- Maintain hardware systems and launch software services in networked environment.
- Technical support and training for Linux and Windows systems, software.

Hired tutor in mathematics.

September, 2003 - April, 2004

Specialization

- Database administration; focused in MySQL. Experienced with PostgreSQL and others.
- Web programming; focused in PHP, JS, jQuery, xHTML, CSS. Experienced with Rails.
- System programming: PHP, Python, shell scripting, Ruby, Perl, C++.
- System administration: Linux (since 1996), FreeBSD, OS X, and Microsoft (since 1994).
- Hardware and networking: upgrading, installation, and management.
- Multimedia: Final Cut, Logic, Reason, InDesign, Photoshop, music production.

Education

Boston University, class of 2005.

Summa cum laude. B.A. in Mathematics. 3.82 GPA, cumulative

- Robert Bruce Prize in Mathematics
- Phi Beta Kappa; NSCS Member; Dean's List
- President of the Undergraduate Mathematics Association, 2003

Winnacunnet High School, class of 2001

Salutatorian. Took all available AP courses. Tennis team all four years.